Roanoke, Va., July 19.—Portsmouth was an easy victim for Roanoke again to day. The Magicians went into the game with ginger and snap but after they secured such a strong lead they played with the visitors. The three new men evidently did not strengthen the team and the Roanoke bats found Portsmouths crack pitcher dead easy. Score:

The Norfolk and Portsmouth teams

The Norfolk and Portsmouth teams play a series of three games in Portsmouth, beginning next Monday, Thornton had three hits in yesterday's game. He will finally get his eye on the ball and bang out hits as of yore.
Old fat, good-natured "Pop" Tate can generally be relied on to make a hit when it is needed. He made three yesterday.

Clare was in the box for Portsmouth yesterday against Williams, of the Roanokes, and what the "Magioians" did for the Truckers is not very interesting reading for the Portsmouth Portsmouth

A wire message brings the news that the three men who joined the Ports-mouths in Roanoke yesterday did not strengthen the team. It is best to wait a while for further developments bea while for further developments be fore passing judgment.

Clare, he of such good twirling propensities, was only touched up for sixteen hits by the Roanoke boys yesterday, it seems that all the highly praised and widely heralded pitchers are being hit hard and often now.
There were a few people in Norfolk yesterday morning who said Eddie Herr could'nt pitch any more. Those few people are now denying that they ever said any such thing. On the contrary, they contend that they always said he was one of the best in the league.
